

My chase account has not been able to connect for months. I get these errors. I go through the process of granting permissions and it still does not work. What's the deal?

Sign in to account

Something unexpected happened and we can't connect to Chase Bank.

Try again in a few hours. (590)

Report this issue

Taxes

Accounting

My Accountant

Capital

Looks like we don't have access to this account
Let's make sure it's connected to QuickBooks. (352) Sign in to Chase Bank

For Review | In QuickBooks | Excluded Go to Register

ⓧ Reply with a link and I'll help you troubleshoot. Please do not reply with your private details, passwords, or other confidential information.

ⓧ Reply with a link and I'll help you troubleshoot. Please do not reply with your private details, passwords, or other confidential information.

We've processed your request to share your financial data with Intuit QuickBooks on 01/15/2019. You can see this change in your profile on chase.com.

Intuit QuickBooks will access your Chase information in a secure way so you don't need to give them your username and password.

As a reminder, you chose to share your data with Intuit QuickBooks for any new accounts you add in the future.

You can modify or remove access at any time by signing in to chase.com and going to the AccountSafe™ page in your Profile & Settings.

If you have any questions or did not make this change, please call us. You can find the number by signing in to chase.com and going to the Help & Support section.

E-mail Security Information

If you're concerned about the authenticity of this message, please visit chase.com/CustomerService for options on how to contact us.