

When they click on Customers, they can see client contact information, but no transactions... this is fine.

When they click on Employees, they can see employee contact information , but no transactions, which is okay.

When they click on Enter time, then use weekly timesheet, they can see any employees timesheet that they want. They just need to enter any name.

