

Go forth and lead.

AANHPI Month 2022 celebrates and promotes leadership through collaboration. Use these resources to get started.

For everyone

Asian Professional Exchange (APEX)

Develops and refines both community and corporate leadership skills.

Center for Asia Leadership

Offers leadership development for government, community, and business leaders.

US Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce (USPAACC)

Represents AAPIs in business, science, the arts, sports, education, and community services.

For women and LGBTQ+

Center for Asian Pacific American Women (CAPAW)

Dedicated to the enhancement of leadership skills for AAPI women.

National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum (NAPAWF)

Focused on building power with AAPI women and girls to influence critical decisions.

National Queer Asian Pacific Islander Alliance (NQAPIA)

Seeks to develop leaders, educate, and challenge anti-LGBTQ bias and racism.

For business leaders and professionals

Ascend

Develops and elevates AAPI business leaders and professionals.

Asian American Business Development Center (AABDC)

Promotes greater recognition of Asian American business contributions in the U.S.

Asian American Hotel Owners Association (AAHOA)

Advances and protects the business interests of hotel owners.

Asian Leaders Alliance (ALA)

Brings together Asian Employee Resource Group leaders to foster collaboration and growth.

Asian Pacific American Chamber of Commerce (APACC)

Provides a forum for AAPI business leaders and develops leadership skills.

Asian Pacific American Labor Alliance (APALA)

A national group of AAPI workers with a focus on leadership opportunities.

Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics (LEAP)

Encourages individuals to assume leadership roles at work and in the community.

National Association of Asian American Professionals (NAAAP)

Inspires, develops, and connects business leaders across industries.

For community leaders

Asian Pacific American Leadership Foundation (APALF)

Equips and prepares AAPI leaders for public service and civic involvement.

Korean American Coalition (KAC)

Promotes the interests of the Korean American community through leadership development.

National Coalition for Asian Pacific American Community Development (CAPACD)

A coalition of local organizations that advocate for low-income AAPI communities.

National Organization for Vietnamese American Leadership of Greater Washington (NOVAL-DC)

On a mission to build sustainable leadership in the Vietnamese American community.

For government leaders

Asian Pacific American Leadership Institute (APALI)

Addresses the need for more Asian Americans to serve as political and civic leaders.

Center for Asian Americans United for Self Empowerment (CAUSE)

Empowers Asian individuals to be politically and civically engaged.

Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC)

Encourages the participation and advancements of AAPIs in the government workforce.

For law professionals

National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (NAPABA)

Represents the interests of AAPI attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students.

South Asian Bar Association of North America (SABA)

Provides a trusted forum for professional development for the South Asian legal community.

For youth and students

Asian American Youth Leadership Empowerment and Development (AALEAD)

Offers after-school, mentoring, and summer programs for Asian American youths.

Asian MBA International (AMBA)

The largest group of AAPI MBA students and working professionals in the U.S.

Conference on Asian Pacific American Leadership (CAPAL)

Empowers AAPI youth by connecting them with resources to become strong leaders.

For creatives

Asian American Advertising Federation (3AF)

Advances the marketing and advertising industry for AAPIs through education and advocacy.

Asian American Journalists Association (AAJA)

Advocates on behalf of AAPIs in the newsroom and on the front lines.

Asian American Arts Alliance (A4)

Strengthens AAPI artists through resource sharing, promotion, and community building.

For health and well-being

Asian and Pacific Islander American Health Forum (APIAHF)

On a mission to improve the health and well-being of Asian Americans.

Association of Asian Healthcare Leaders (AAHL)

Creates networking opportunities and offers leadership development for AAPIs in healthcare.

National Asian American Pacific Islander Mental Health Association (NAAPIMHA)

Promotes the mental health and well-being of AAPI communities.

For science and engineering

Asian American Architects and Engineers Association (AAa/e)

Provides a growth platform for AAPI professionals working in the built environment.

Society of Asian Scientists and Engineers (SASE)

Committed to preparing Asian heritage scientists and engineers for success.

Illustrations by Vivian Shih

Vivian is a Cali-raised, Brooklyn-based, Asian American artist and art director. Her illustrations spotlight the experience of women and people of color. Her personal work focuses on themes of self-discovery and internal reflection.

